PYTHIAN SURPLUS IS OVER $143,000 ACCORDING TO GRAND LODGE RE- PORTS.

Closing Days of Session
Marked by Brilliant Events.
Oklahoma Drill Team Wins
Cup. S. S. Willis and Cabinet
Unanimously Re-elected.

Denison, Texas, June 16.—The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias of the jurisdiction of Texas was brought to a close Friday night with a grand and splendid street parade and the public installation of Grand Lodge officers at the K. of P. park.

The closing sessions of Wednesday and Thursday were featured by Grand officers reports, the election of officers and the grand drill contest of divisions and the Uniform Ranks of towns in Texas and Oklahoma.

Grand Officers Reports.
The most important reports of Grand officers were heard on Wednesday. Among them were the reports of the Grand Keeper of Records and Seal, L. E. Smith; Grand Master of Exchequer, G. Guest; Board of Directors presented by Hon. A. S. Jackson, chairman; Endowment Board and the Grand Chancellor.

The report of the K. of R. and S. showed a grand total membership for the jurisdiction of 16,353 with cash on hand in the Grand Lodge treasury of $143,000.22 and all claims paid. The report of G. M. of G. Guest tallied in all respects with the report of the K. of R. and S.

In a splendid speech of congratulatory nature, Hon. A. S. Jackson, presented the report of the Board of Directors of the Grand Lodge. He spoke of the splendid condition of the organization and attributed it solely to the business ability and fact that the Grand Chancellor and the spirit of cheerful co-operation of all of the subordinate lodges and masters.

The report of the President of the Endowment Board showed all regular claims paid, showing that the report of cash on hand in reality meant a surplus.

Many compliments were given on the reports of A. S. Willis, Grand Attorney and the Temple commissioners.

Grand Officers elected.
The reports of officers were concluded with the report of Grand Chancellor Willis, who spoke of the hearty support rendered him by officers and members of the subordinate lodges of the jurisdiction in making the report. He pointed out the progress which the reports had shown. He painted a vivid picture of the future growth possible to the order in Texas and prophesied that it could and would come to pass if the same spirit which was responsible for the reported progress was continued.

The Grand Chancellor was heartily applauded and congratulated on the conclusion of his remarks and shortly thereafter by a unanimous vote he with the executive cabinet was re-elected for another term.

G. C. Willis and Hon. A. S. Jackson were chosen representatives to the Supreme Grand Lodge.

Oklahoma Drill Team Wins.
A new and novel feature of the Grand Lodge session was the Competitive drill held Thursday night in which the Oklahoma City drill team, led by W. E. Worth, contested a drill team of Oklahoma City for the loving cup which has been presented to the drill team to be found in the two jurisdictions.

The large crowd of spectators was interested from start to finish by this

PRESIDENT HARDING AD- DRESSES STUDENTS OF LINCOLN UNIVERSITY.

Deplores Tulsa Tragedy;
Urges Greater Application to Education and Development.

Washington, June 16.—Benefited by their outing, President and Mrs. Harding returned to Washington shortly after noon last Monday from their pilgrimage to Valley Forge, twenty-five miles northwest of Philadelphia, as the weekend guests of Senator and Mrs. Philander C. Knox.

The distance of approximately 124 miles from the White House to the site of the restored stone house of the American Revolution, was covered by the President and Mrs. Harding in a motorcade which was covered by the President in 15 minutes. The President stopped long enough at Lincoln University, on the northern edge of Oxford, Pa., to deliver a brief extemporaneous speech in which he commended that institution's work for the higher education of Negroes, and alluded to the recent race riot at Tulsa, expressing the hope that such a spectacle would never again be witnessed in this country.

In a splendid speech of congratulatory nature, Hon. A. S. Jackson, presented the report of the Board of Directors of the Grand Lodge. He spoke of the splendid condition of the organization and attributed it solely to the business ability and fact that the Grand Chancellor and the spirit of cheerful co-operation of all of the subordinate lodges and masters.
